illusion. Iran wishes to develop atomic bombs to threaten millions, and we believe that both of them are moving into the ruins of shattered states in the Middle East and from here they want to establish each their own Islamic empire”, Netanyahu said. Before, during, and after the agreement, Iranians were taking to the streets chanting “death to America, death to Israel.” Wow.

“It is those crushing economic sanctions that brought Iran to the table to finally accept the nuclear deal“. Ali Khamenei’s characterization of the USA as Satan, and his prediction of the fall of Israel by 2040 will likely heighten the already strained relationship Iran has with Tel Aviv.

No matter that most Americans do not trust Iran and think the current agreement is a farce. This is an unacceptable agreement that threatens the security of our nation for generations to come.

“Today, I call on Congresswoman Gwen Graham to vote no on the Iran deal”, Dunn said on Thursday.

Shaheen, speaking on the Senate floor, said the agreement will effectively block Iran’s ability to obtain a nuclear weapon for more than a decade.

The attacks on Israel and the USA are a reiteration of earlier comments, yet the timing can create an opportunity for critics of the deal to question any attempts to mend ties with Iran.

Joined by military veterans, several dozen House Democrats gathered Tuesday evening on the steps of the Capitol to show their support for the deal with Iran. But she says it gives the USA and its allies “the most realistic and effective course of action now available to stop Iran’s nuclear weapons program”.

“I can not see how taking this deal is in the best interest of this nation”, he said.

Abraham also joined a majority of the House in approving legislation to prevent President Barack Obama from lifting sanctions on Iran. Under a law Obama signed in May, Congress has until September 17 to try
